A) Importance of the landscape/seascape/indigenous territory for biodiversity, with additional consideration to climate benefits.

1. Is the proposed territory/landscape/seascape a globally important area for biodiversity?

Scoring:

- Not significant;
- Low Significance;
- Moderate Significance;
- Medium-high Significance;
- High Significance;
- Exceptional Significance

Reviewer A: 5/5 Reviewer B: 5/5

Average: 5/5

Evidence A: The project area comprises one of the most important areas for biodiversity of the continent

Evidence B: The proposed area is a corridor associated with the area of god mother, includes areas both Bolivia and Peru, has at the least two areas of sobrelapadas conservation, has a large number of threats and total number about 10 million ha.

2. Is the area important for climate mitigation?

Scoring:

- >50 t/ha - Low;
- 50 - 100 t/ha - Moderate;
- >100 t/ha - High

Reviewer A: 2/2 Reviewer B: 2/2

Evidence A: The area includes areas of critical forest ecosystems in Peru and in Bolivia

Evidence B: Ranges of different areas ranging from 70 to over 100 t / ha

B) Geographical focus in an area under IPLC governance.

3. Is the area held and managed by IPLC under community-based governance systems?

Scoring:

- IPLC governance (rights and institutions) not evident;

- Project areas are partially under IPLC systems of governance (spatially or politically);
- Project areas are largely under IPLC governance, but IPLC rights and/or institutions face significant constraints;
- Project areas are held and managed under IPLC governance systems, with some limitations;
- Project areas are held and managed under strong and active IPLC governance systems

Reviewer A: 3/5 Reviewer B: 4/5

Average: 3.5/5

Evidence A: The evidence presented can observe a large handling capacity and territorial control by the organizations. The demarcation of indigenous lands is a difficulty that exists in the area.

Evidence B: The zones are managed by indigenous organizations, but by the laws of each country and its internal problems there are limitations in decision-making and governance problems associated

4. Does the proposal explain the unique cultural significance of the area to IPLCs?

Scoring:

- No explanation given of unique significance to IPLCs;

Reviewer A: 2/2 Reviewer B: 1/2

Average: 1.5/2

Evidence A: the item is well described and based on EoI

Evidence B: In terms organizations a wide range of justifications shown and importance, yet culturally a broader explanation of peoples, cultural or practical values, sacred sites, knowledge is not given but the presence of people mentioned in isolation volunteer or initial contact, key at this point

C) Vulnerability of the proposed IPLCs as well as their lands/waters/natural resources to threats.

5. Is the area vulnerable to threats/current risk of negative impacts to IPLC and biodiversity without action?

- Requires urgent action

Reviewer A: 5/5 Reviewer B: 5/5

Average: 5/5

Evidence A: The EoI describes threats precise and detailed in Evidence B: It is an area with high amaneza for IPLC, for several years have been working shares however the sustainability of the processes is key to continue. Threats persist and are increasing illegal mining processes, road projects, among many other illicit economies. This area requires urgent action

D) Opportunities for ICI results - including enabling policy conditions, positive government support and presence of successful IPLC-led conservation initiatives that could be scaled up.

6. Are enabling policy conditions in place for IPLC-led conservation in the proposed area?

Scoring:

- Legal and policy frameworks in project areas undermine IPLC governance (either actively or through absence);

- Legal and policy frameworks actively promote the recognition of IPLC governance

Reviewer A: 2/3 Reviewer B: 2/3

Evidence A: Regulatory recognition established by constitutions are a very favorable framework

Evidence B: Although political conditions are not the best in Bolivia to work with IPLC, a list of actions leading indigenous organizations in the area, and the project would help to give sustainability to the same shown. Reviewer A: 3/3 Reviewer B: 2/3

Average: 2.5/3

Evidence A: In both countries (Peru and Bolivia) a legal framework sufficiently wide recognition is appreciated, but management still depends basically on indigenous initiatives rather than government

Evidence B: In the past both in Bolivia and Peru there has been strong support in promoting actions, mechanisms and projects harnessing work with IPLC, however Bolivia vision and government support is currently unclear, which in Peru if there, put REDD + projects running examples and a series of actions

8. Are there successful IPLC-led conservation initiatives in the proposed area that provide a foundation for scaling up?

Scoring:

- No IPLC-led conservation initiatives have been implemented;
- Few IPLC-led conservation projects have been implemented in pilot stages only;
